

To: FOMC Records

-2-

July 2, 1973

contemplated by the special authorization would not be needed.

I reported this information to Governor Mitchell, Acting Chairman of the Federal Open Market Committee, who thereupon indicated that he would not make the determination that the special authorization was required. Accordingly, the authorization did not become effective.