As a United States Citizen since Birth and as an adult, I have spent 45 years in the Banking and Credit Union World. For Many years we never even worked on Saturdays, but then realized that Banks would really help the customer if we opened until Noon at some of our Branches. We did so.

If indeed the Federal Reserve begins to stay open seven days a week, does this mean that All Banks and Credit Unions will also have to Stay Open? If so, I totally disagree with this Bill. So please take in consideration my opinion. Again, I totally disagree with this Bill.

Thanks, Sally A. Hunt
