

Meeting Between Staff of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta and Representatives from Affordable Housing and Community Development Organizations in the Sixth Federal Reserve District
February 9, 2021

Participants: Sue Costello, Julie Waheed, Jessica Farr, Mary Hirt, David Jackson, Nisha Sutaria, Karen Leone de Nie, Jennifer Leak, Donta Council, and Leslie Aschenbroich (Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta)

Stephanie Russell (Georgia Municipal Association); Shannon Nazworth (Ability Housing); Chris Higdon (Georgia Cities Foundation); Sara Miller and Diane Standaert (Hope Policy Institute); John O'Callaghan (ANDP); Alison Earles (Georgia Municipal Association); Dale Royal (LISC); Andreanecia Morris (HousingNOLA); Terry Chelikowsky (Florida Alliance for Community Solutions); Cornell Wesley (Yamini Bhat)

Summary: Staff of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta met with representatives from affordable housing and community development organizations in the Sixth Federal Reserve District to discuss their feedback on a variety of topics related to the Board's advance notice of proposed rulemaking on an approach to modernize the regulations that implement the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA), including branch distribution and access, community development financing, economic development, and affordable housing.