

Meeting Between Staff of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago and Representatives of the Wisconsin CRA Bankers Association
January 20, 2021

Participants: Taz George, Jason Keller, and Michael Austin (Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago)

Representatives of the Wisconsin CRA Bankers Association

Summary: Staff of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago met with representatives of the Wisconsin CRA Bankers Association to discuss their observations about the Federal Reserve Board's advance notice of proposed rulemaking (ANPR) on an approach to modernize the regulations that implement the Community Reinvestment Act (CRA). The representatives discussed bank asset-size thresholds, banking deserts, the treatment of community development loans and community development investments, community development services, and qualifying geographies for community development activities among other topics related to CRA modernization.
